NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

J. F. Rainey has been appointed postmaster at Judson, Garrard county.

William McWhorter, of Laurel county, has become insane over Mormonism.

Five new cases of smallpox are reported from the infected district in Adair county.

A dispatch from Burksville says that there are fewer bolting democrats in Cumberland county than for years.

The small-pox epidemic in Russell county has about died out. Out of 40 odd cases there were only two deaths. It cost the county near $1,000.

Arch Merly, who was shot at Burksville by Mac Jennings, died of his injuries. Jennings is in jail. There is talk of mob violence.

Miss Alice Arnold, for several years teacher of the primary department of the Caldwell High School, Richmond, died of typhoid fever, after a protracted illness.

Luther Creekmore, son of Rev. N. B. Creekmore, charged in five cases with obtaining money by forged checks, was held at Richmond to the circuit court in $400 bond.

Judge Saufley will hold a special term of court at Harrodsburg Oct. 31, for the trial of William Whitenack, who killed his brother-in-law, Wickensham, a few months ago.

In Clay county, Dan Parker and Thomas Whitamore were fired on from ambush, while on their way to Manchester. Whitamore was killed, but Parker was only slightly wounded, and escaped by falling from his horse and feigning death. Carlo Lytle has been elected special judge at Manchester, owing to the absence of Judge Ever sole.

CHURCHES AND PREACHERS.

The praise offering service by the Presbyterian ladies occurs this afternoon.

Rev. Fazaley, of this county, will preach at Antioch church in Garrard county tomorrow and Sunday.

The National W. C. T. U. in session at Seattle, Wash., passed resolutions condemning the president for his anti-army-canteen action, and protesting against his policy of force in the Philippines Islands.

The Stanford missionary society auxiliary to the Christian Women's Board of Missions, will conduct a praise service, with echoes of the National convention, next Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 1, beginning at 2:30. All women of the Christian church in Lincoln county are cordially invited to attend.

The Graves county Baptist association refused to adopt resolutions condemning Goebel, though a hired emissary was on hand to get them through, the association informing the fellow that it could attend to its own business.

Several of the papers have been publishing that Walnut-street church of Louisville has 1,082 members. The fact is the number is 1,750, although it has been some time since the list has been revised, and when this is done the number will be reduced.—Western Recorder.

The West Virginia Presbyterian Synod decided that woman is subordinate by divine interpretation, although the "woman's rights movement" seeks to deny it; that home is her sphere and she should remain there meek and quiet. Her position in the church, it is held, should be a passive one. She should neither exhort nor preach. She is, however, allowed to sing in Sunday schools and aid societies.

The Co-operative meeting at the Christian church here Wednesday, was the largest and most enthusiastic held in a long time. Rev. F. W. Allen presided. G. A. Peyton was secretary and A. D. Root treasurer. They were re-elected and the following executive committee elected: T. J. Hill, W. L. McCarty, A. D. Root, G. A. Peyton, J. W. Powell and B. B. King. Missionary J. G. Livingston made a report of the grand work that he is doing in the waste places of the county and told of the nearly 100 new members that the Lord had blessed his services with. Over $80 was raised at once for the work and pledges given for much more. President Allen says he never heard better speeches than were delivered and never spent a pleasanter and more profitable day. The ladies spread a bountiful dinner, which the large crowd heartily enjoyed. Among the preachers present were Revs. H. E. Garrison, of Danville, T. S. Tinsley, of Owensboro, J. C. Walden and C. E. Powell, of Lancaster, B. J. Pinkerton, of Hustonville, and Old Bro. A. J. Daughertee, who has grown gray in the Lord's service.

LUNG IRRITATION.

Is the forerunner to consumption. Dr. Dell's Pine-Tar-Honey will cure it, and give such strength to the lungs that a cough or a cold will not settle there. Twenty five cents at Penny's Drug Store.

LANCASTER.

Messrs Stephen Teater and M. J. Harris, of Crab Orchard, were here Tuesday on business.

Miss Sallie Elkin and her little brother, John Woodcock, have returned from Atlanta, Ga., where they spent several weeks.

Henry Patterson will not carry a Louisville Post in his pocket, fearing that he will die suddenly and it will be found on his body.

Bradley, Brown and Blackburn will likely be the only candidates for the U. S. Senate. These are three B's, representing bombast, bolting and brains.

Large crowds are attending the meetings which are being held Eld. Geo Gowen at Pleasant Grove, and everybody is interested in the able discourses.

Mr. Robert Thompson has sold the fixtures of his butcher shop and his good will in the business to Edward Norris and D. C. Pulino, of Paint Lick, at $200.

Rice Benge's stock pens drew a large crowd on Monday, and he handled about $90 cattle. He had a good dinner on the ground, and everybody is pleased with the enterprise.

Mr. Tilden Huffman and Miss America J. Black, of this county, procured license and drove to Danville to be married, on Wednesday. Wm. Brown and Miss Annie White were married near Paint Lick on Tuesday.

A special from here to the Louisville Commercial says that there are over 100 Brown men in the county. The author must be unfair or very ignorant. He can get a wager of a handsome sum that Brown will not get 25 votes in the county.

Scouts to hear Hon. Alf. Taylor on Wednesday night, Nov. 1, are still selling rapidly and those who desire to hear him had better procure seats at McRoberts' drug store at once. It may be the last opportunity to hear the great lecturer.

Leitch Owles received a telegram from Senator Blackburn, ch'm. State dem. campaign committee, asking him to speak in Louisville on the last three days of this week. He accepted and left here on Wednesday night. This is a high compliment to one so young, and he will be equal to the occasion, being altogether capable to handle the issues of the campaign.

Two tickets are out for the board of city council. One is called Citizens' ticket and consists of the following names: John E. Stormes, J. C. Robinson, J. C. Thompson, Jas. A. Beazley, J. R. Heselden, J. I. Hamilton. The second is called the Railroad ticket and consists of J. M. Higginbotham, T. Curry, W. B. Mason, James Dillon, Sam Totten and Rice Benge.

T. S. Elkin, Geo. Smith and Robert Whittaker report the following from L. W. Hudson's sale at Camp Dick Robinson: 25 Jersey cows $25 to $55; broke mules $65 to $100; horses $40 to $90; sheep $5; one Ashland Wilkes colt $100; 53 acres of hemp $23 per acre in shock; timothy hay 40 cents per hundred in stack; one McCormick harvesting machine $75; buggies $44 to $85. Household furniture and farming implements sold well. G. A. Swinebroad bought the new toll house at $836. A splendid dinner was spread and about 800 people were present.

There are 12 good men candidates for town trustees, and there is no reason why six, who will look to the best interests of the town, should not be elected. We are enjoying an era of thrift and prosperity and with a conservative city council, the town will continue to increase in wealth and population. There is no excuse for electing a board that will impose an unnecessary tax on the people or do anything which will retard the general welfare. Think before you go to the polls and ascertain how the candidates stand on matters of public interest.

On Monday evening it was thought that there might be some irregularity in the certificate filed with Clerk Duncan in reference to the nomination of Wm. Ray for representative, and the untrified democrats, in and near town, had 153 names, signed to a petition, from 6 to 10 o'clock at night. Mr. Duncan kindly remaining in his office to file the petition, it being the last day for filing in order to get the name on the ballot. Attorneys Williams and Robinson thought the certificate good, but out of an abundance of caution, it was deemed best to file the petition and insure the race, as it is claimed that Ray is a winner.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

A New York woman had her sweetheart arrested for theft and then married him.

A Newburg (N. Y.) girl remained faithful while her sweetheart served a nine years' term in prison and married him on his release.

The Rev. Pearce Atkins, of the Christian church, Harrodsburg, and Miss Emma Curry, daughter of ex-Representative D. J. Curry, are to be married on Nov. 1.

A Napoleon (Ohio) couple were married a few days ago, after an engagement which extended unbroken over a period of 60 years. The man is 80 and the woman 72 years old.

Dr. A. H. Melcon, London dentist, and Miss May, daughter of Congressman Vincent Boreing, went to Bellevue, O., and were married. The bride is highly accomplished and pretty.

Frank Ormley, a widower of 48, and Miss Lucy Gray, just 15, were married in Cumberland county. The groom has six children, all of whom are older than the bride and a grandchild who is just her age.

At Roberts' Store, in Crittenden county, Henry Carson and John Drewry fought over their mutual sweetheart and both were probably fatally wounded. The girl witnessed the fight but made no effort to separate the foes.

A Tennessee squire is said to have used these words in tying a matrimonial knot: Wilt thou take her for thy pard, for better or for worse, to have, to hold, to fondly guard until hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes, make the fire every day and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and mother, aunt Jemima and uncle John, three sisters and a brother? And his face grew pale and blank; it was too late to jilt as to the floor he sank, and he said, "I will."

Our last issue contained an authorized announcement of the marriage of Miss Annie Aleorn to Hon. J. N. Saunders, which is to occur at the Presbyterian church, on the evening of the 1st. The two have been lovers a long time and the happy consummation of their hopes is the source of much gratification to their many friends.

The prospective bride is a charming and handsome young woman and besides being highly cultured in a literary way, is an adept stenographer and typewriter, which she took up in order to assist her father, Judge Aleorn, in his legal work. Mr. Saunders represented his native county, Washington in the Legislature and held the office of railroad commissioner after the resignation of Senator McChord. He is referee in bankruptcy and enjoys a good law practice, and is moral and upright. The union is sure to prove a happy one. The bridal trip includes a tour of Europe, after which the pair will return to Stanford to live in the nice home the groom has prepared for his bonnie bride.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ade E. Hart, of Groton, S. D., taken by a bad cold which settled on her in a coach set in a stand in Conshohocken. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with them above the grave, I would not. I had a doctor, however, who had a special skill in this disease, and he advised me to go to Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store. Regular size 50¢ and $1. Guaranteed or price refunded.

COUGHED 25 YEARS.

I suffered 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors and medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. B. Rosell, Grantsburg, Ill.

SPAIN'S GREATEST NEED.

Mr. R. P. Tarr, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winter in America. He writes: "I have suffered severe pain in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Remedy, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America now uses it. It cures all diseases of the blood, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. It weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 99 cents. Sold by Penny, Druggist."

MIDDLEBURG.

Mrs. Betsey Edwards, who fell from her horse some 10 days ago and sustained injuries, is able to be about again.

Col. R. J. Breckinridge spoke here yesterday, Wednesday, to an appreciative audience, composed mostly of democrats. He preached some mighty good democratic doctrine and it was well received by those present. We heard a republican after the speaking say he would rather see Uncle Bob elected than any republican he knew.

The legislative race in this county is warming up in spots. That Mr. Meadows has a fighting chance to win, even republicans do not hesitate to admit.

Democracy is in good shape, while from all over the county come reports of dissatisfaction among the republicans with P. H. Taylor. Mr. Meadows comes to us recommended as an honorable, upright young man, fully able to represent the two counties in the legislature, and if democrats continue to do their duty, his election is assured.

William Miller, of this place, went to Stanford to hear Bryan, and while there stopped in for a friendly chat with Mr. D. W. Vandever, an old friend of his. In the course of the conversation about the election, Mr. Miller said something uncomplimentary about the bolters, not knowing that "Davy" was one of the boys, when the old "Codger" flew off the handle and flourishing a big walking cane, made use of some language not the least befitting a man of his age and position in the church. Mr. Miller being so completely taken by surprise, thought it best to "vamoose the ranch," and lost no time in doing so. The bolter candidate for commissioner of agriculture must be "hot stuff."

George Elmore, who married Miss Ella Watts, at Grove, about a month ago, shot and dangerously wounded Leslie Price Sunday morning. Price was on his way to Sunday School and when opposite Elmore's house, he came out with a double-barreled shotgun and fired upon Price, emptying the contents of both barrels into his body. The gun was loaded with small shot, otherwise he would have been killed on the spot, but he ran to his home a distance of about a quarter of a mile, and fell exhausted at the front gate. Elmore claims that Price went to his house Saturday in his absence, and insulted his wife. Price says he did stop at Mr. Elmore's and asked Mrs. Elmore for a drink of water, but said nothing out of the way to her. Price seems to be a very moral young man, and the sympathies of the people generally, are with him. We know but little of Elmore, though it is reported that he has been in frequent difficulties.

Rev. Nathan Price, father of the wounded man, went to Liberty Sunday evening and had a warrant issued for Elmore's arrest, but he went to Liberty Monday and gave himself up to the sheriff, and was put under bond to await the result of Price's wounds.

KINGSVILLE.

In anticipation of the coming democratic victory, confidence is gradually being restored and the sound of the hammer and the saw is once more heard in the land. The republican banner droops like a dish-rag, while the democratic flag proudly floats in the breeze.

Mrs. Robinson and children have returned from their visit in Tennessee. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dineen, from Somerset, have been on short visit to her mother, Mrs. Pennybacker. Miss Gertrude Pennybacker is in Louisville on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Chalk. All weddings here postponed till Xmas.

An odd and exasperating incident occurred to your correspondent a day or two ago. A young lady approached me and presenting me an apple of a forbidding appearance—being of a rough skin and of a dull greenish color; requested me to send it to the editor. I naturally asked her if there was anything rare and fine about it. She answered with a sardonic smile "Very rare and fine." "Has it a name?" I asked. "Oh yes," said she, "It is called 'The Editor's Blush.'" "Ah" said I, "but where's the blush?" "Inside" said she. Whereupon I whipped out my knife, mad as I could be, and clove that apple in twain and saw blood red streaks running through it. This incident explains itself. The lady in question was of uncertain age, had a muddy complexion, wore an ill-fitting and unbecoming gown, and a frig of a hat.

Why experiment on yourself with remedies of doubtful utility when you can get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which has stood the test of time? Twenty-five years' sale and use have proven that remedy to be a prompt and certain cure for colds. It will cure a cold in a day if taken as soon as the cold has been contracted and before it has settled in the system. Sold by Craig & Hocken.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor, WILLIAM GOEBEL.

For Lieutenant Governor, J. C. W. BECKHAM.

For Attorney General, R. J. BRECKINRIDGE.

For Auditor, GUS G. COULTER.

For Treasurer, S. W. HAGER.

For Secretary of State, C. BRECK HILL.

For Superintendent of Public Instruction, HARRY MCCHESEY.

For Commissioner of Agriculture, ION B. NALL.

For Railroad Commissioner, C. C. MCCHORD.

For Representative, M. F. NORTH.

"I AM not responsible for any of the State nominations and not in accord with any of the party platforms, but I regard the Lexington movement as a protest against packed primaries," said Arch Traitor William Lindsay in response to questions as to his position in the present campaign, adding that he regarded the election law as the most vicious and dangerous measure that ever found a place on our statute books. This is the man whom democracy has so often honored and to whom he owes everything. But that is the way of a certain class of traitors. Everything is lovely with them till something doesn't go their way and then in a twinkling they forget the obligations of a lifetime. There are men in our own county who have fatten off the democratic party, which took them up in their poverty and set their feet on a firm foundation, who have now turned against it, and are doing it all the damage they can, since they have gotten all they can reasonably expect out of it. Such men are fit only for treasons, stratagems and spoils and should not be trusted, but be despised and ostracized by honest men as well.

A BOMB was exploded in the "honest and quiet election" meeting held in the board of trade building at Louisville by Mr. Zach Phelps proposing a resolution deprecating any attempt of any railroad or other corporation to use money to control the election and requesting the grand jury to investigate any such violation of law. The crowd which was composed mainly of L. & N. attorneys, bolters and republicans voted it down, after Gen. Duke had aired himself extensively on Goebel without calling his name. Evidently the meeting was not so much to protest against dishonest methods in elections, as it was to squeal because the Goebel election law gives those who have profited by stolen elections, no chance to steal the vote this time.

IN concluding his speech at Owensboro, Gov. Bradley said: "I want all republicans, Brown democrats, prohibitionists, populists, and all friends of honesty in politics and opponents to Goebelism and the election law, to vote for Bill Taylor." There is one crowd at least that will respond to this appeal. Every last Brownie will vote for Taylor, if he doesn't come to his senses and vote for Goebel and the democratic ticket. The hired Brownie means business and will put his vote where it will do democracy the most dirt.

THE president's thanksgiving proclamation is as long as his message to congress ought to be and is from start to finish a regular campaign document, containing much that is untrue and much that is highly colored. All the same we have much to be thankful for and we shall give thanks not because McKinley has named the things we should be thankful for, but in spite of him and them.

THE campaign now drawing to an exciting close finds the democracy in the finest kind of fighting trim and determined to rescue the State from republican rule and at the same time put a lasting seal of condemnation on bolters and bolting. Goebel is sure to be elected. Put that in your pipe and smoke it.

SENATOR GOEBEL is making speeches in Louisville and creating great enthusiasm. He is in other words bearding the L. & N. lion in his den and is if possible giving that corporation even hotter stuff than when he was miles away. Gen. Duke ought to chase him out of town.

JUDGE EVERSOLE did not show up at the Manchester court. He is evidently afraid to go there and that being the case, he ought to resign and let somebody who is not afraid see that the laws are not rendered a dead letter in the feud ridden mountains.

AND now it is said that Gov. Bradley has been promised the U. S. Senatorship for helping Taylor. Is poor old Joan Young Brown to pull the chestnuts out of the fire and get only burned claws for his trouble?

THERE is no man in Kentucky of whom we think more than Dr. John D. Woods and his attitude in the present campaign has been a source of much concern to us. The Warren County Courier, of which he was editor, flew the democratic ticket at its mast head, but gave it a very nominal support, if support it could be called. But the doctor is editor of the consolidated Times and Courier now which comes out squarely for the democratic ticket, which is, as Mr. Watterson expresses it, opposed by a set of janizaries, black leg lawyers and blackmailing newspapers. We felt that the old man was all right and the confirmation of our good opinion makes us glad indeed.

MR. WATTERSON has sworn that the horse is 17 feet high and sticks to it. To be consistent he still claims that the election law is a bad one, and should be repealed, but it will never be if republicans are continued in power. Therefore he says if you oppose it, vote for the democratic ticket. That party alone can be trusted to repeal the law, which, until Goebel was nominated, John Young Brown and his squealers all thought a good one.

THE republican speakers who are advising their followers to wade in blood to their bridle bits, if democratic election officers do not tote fair, could be run out of the State with a squirt gun.

THE Jessamine Journal's trade edition shows what Harry McCarty can do when he tries. It was well gotten up, well printed and a credit to the town and section generally.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Senator Goebel will speak at Lebanon on Oct. 31.

Hon. H. P. Thompson, of Winchester, estimates advisedly that the 10th district will give Goebel 3,500 majority.

Dr. J. H. Souther, who figured as one of the most prominent Brown men in Warren county, has announced his intention to support Goebel.

Hon. Champ Clark, Congressman from Missouri, will address the people of Mercer county, at Harrodsburg tomorrow, Saturday afternoon.

Gov. Brown slipped at Leitchfield and wrenched the leg that has been broken twice in 15 years, but he says he intends to keep right along trying to disrupt democracy.

Brown men continue to applaud republican speakers and republicans to applaud Brown speakers. Both are out for the same purpose and that is to defeat the democratic ticket—Owensboro Messenger.

Speaking of the bolters, Bryan said in one of his Kentucky speeches: "I would risk the alienation of every friend I have in Kentucky rather than use my voice against principles dearer than my own life."

Senator Goebel says that at the Louisville Convention Judge Redwine will not rule on the official ballot. This was settled by the refusal of County Clerk Smith to allow the name of Dr. C. K. Wallace, the Brown-L. and N. candidate, to go under the republican device.

Ex-Lieut. Gov. Hindman has joined in the cry of the exes and is now on the stump against Goebel. Mr. Hindman's miserable failure as a vote-getter two years ago would have silenced forever most men, but the ex-Lieutenant Governor does not seem to know that the procession passed by him several years ago.—Glasgow News.

Gov. Bradley remarked to a friend: "I don't see why any sane man wants to be Governor of Kentucky. If all the present candidates would withdraw and I could get the place again without the formality of election, I would most certainly decline." Perhaps that's the reason he has come out for Taylor. He wants to punish him for his ignorance and meanness.

John Young Brown was born in 1835. Graduated in 1855. Was elected to Congress the first time in 1859. Was again elected in 1867. In 1868 his claim was rejected. Was again elected in 1876. Was elected governor in 1891. Bolted the democratic party in 1899. Will die, politically, Nov. 7, 1899, aged 64 years.—Paducah Leader. Hush, he's already dead. Don't disturb the corpse.

The declination of Col. Milt Young, nominated by the Fayette county republicans for senator, and the refusal of Mr. Gunn to run on their ticket for city surveyor has disheartened them and thrown them into disorder from which they cannot recover. Young, who is a cousin of ex-Gov. Brown, is a wealthy and popular man, but saw the republicans were up against it and declined to go in just to have his leg pulled. Competent judges say that the county will give Goebel 1,500 majority. H. R. Coleman, the degenerate preacher, has secured an indictment in Louisville against Editor John E. Thompson, of Bracken county, for criminal libel.

This from that Simon pure democratic sheet, the Richmond Climax, is highly appreciated: The INTERIOR JOURNAL, which never exaggerates, says that after Mr. Bryan's speech at Stanford, democrats are counting on 250 majority for the ticket. Be that as it may, after the vote is counted and the prediction verified, the INTERIOR JOURNAL may divide honors with the great leader, for no paper in the State has struck harder blows or done more effective service for the cause of the people. It is a jewel of consistency, constancy, capacity and courage and the democratic party of the State will be its lasting debtor.

Here's what Senator George H. Alexander, of Louisville, who was elected as a democrat, but who voted against every democratic measure in the legislature, says, and he is a fair representative of the bolting Brownies: "Bryan has alienated himself entirely from the genuine democracy of the State by tying his fortunes to the already overwhelmingly defeated Goebel ticket. It is folly to think that the Brown voters will jump over from the Brown column to the Goebel column to vote for candidates for the legislature, and here is where Blackburn will get it in the neck. Blackburn and Goebel will go down together."

I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Chasing the Pigskin.

The football season is now fairly upon us, and those who take an interest in vigorous and manly athletic sports—a no inconsiderable element by the way of this great American nation—are turning their eyes toward the college gridiron. The teams have lined up for the intercollegiate and varsity battles, scheduled to be played between this time and Thanksgiving day. Already we begin to read in the news columns of broken limbs, unjoined joints and battered noses, but this is to be expected and does not lessen the enthusiasm of the players nor the interest of the public. However much some may decry the brutality of the game, the collegians will continue to wrestle for the possession of the pigskin with unabated vigor.

Public interest, particularly in the east, naturally centers around the "big four"—Harvard, Princeton, University of Pennsylvania and Yale. Never in the history of the game has there been such widespread interest in these four teams, and never has the question of comparative merit been so much involved in uncertainty. Last year the remarkably brilliant record of Harvard in its splendid victories over Yale and the University of Pennsylvania gave an impetus to football at Harvard which should serve as an inspiration for many seasons to come. Princeton, too, emerged from the season victorious over its old rival, Yale, and maintained its reputation as the abiding place of the genius of football. While Yale and Pennsylvania were the victims last year, there was no discredit in the defeats. It was the fortune of that mimic war, and if any one imagines that these reverses imply the uninterrupted defeat he little knows the spirit and stamina of the young men of these two institutions.

While the teams of the "big four," which year in and year out unquestionably have the best players and set the pace, attract the widest attention, there are hundreds of other universities, colleges, training schools and academies whose vigorous young men pursue the pigskin at this season of the year with unvarying devotion and varying success. The game is indeed more than any other game the universal college game, and the results of the play are watched with keen interest by the public as the college yell resounds throughout the land.

The champion horse thief of America, one Peter Zimmerman, has just been arrested in Indiana, Pa. Peter is 75 years of age and claims to hold the horse stealing record, and there is likely to be no counterclaim to the championship.

He has served off and on 40 years of his life for taking horses that didn't belong to him, and, according to his count, he has during his career stolen 150 steeds, varying in value from $50 to $250 each. Mr. Zimmerman is altogether proud of his record. He has never, he declares, stolen a horse from a widow or an orphan or from a hard-working man who had no horses to spare. Only from people who could lose horses without serious inconvenience has Mr. Zimmerman's delicate conscience ever permitted him to steal, and now in his old age he naturally looks back with pride and satisfaction upon his long and honorable career as a horse thief.

The agricultural department at Washington has sent agents to the Mediterranean regions to bring here the Bulgarian rose and other plants from which are derived the fragrant extracts used in making perfumes, and their culture will be tested in various sections of the United States. Nearly all the perfumes used in this country or the essential oils employed in their manufacture are imported, and the department wisely desires to make the experiment of producing them at home. As there are said to be sections of this country which do not differ very materially in soil and climatic conditions from the Mediterranean region, the experiment ought to be successful.

THE democrats of the East End, where Judge R. J. Breckenridge is very popular, will give him a rousing crowd at Crab Orchard, at 2 P. M., the 25th.

OUR Rockcastle friends are urged to hear Hon. G. G. Gilbert at the courthouse in Mt. Vernon tomorrow, Saturday afternoon. He is a fine speaker and his democratic utterances will do you good.

TRADES IN CASEY.—Mrs. John W. Whipp bought of the Napier heirs the Napier Hotel in Liberty for $1,000. K. L. Tanner bought 115 acres of land adjoining his several farms in Casey for $2,800.

DIDN'T DRAW.—A dispatch from Springfield, Shelby county, says that Gray Gilding Davison, after a parade with a brass band, spoke there to a crowd composed of 35 republicans, 10 Brownies and 20 Goebel men.

THE L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to Richmond, Va., at one fare, Nov. 5th and 6th, good to Nov. 14th, on account of the unveiling of the monument to Miss Winnie Davis there, program for which lasts from the 7th to 13th.

HELD.—Both A. G. Coffey and his son, Albert, were held to the circuit court for banding and confederating together to intimidate W. W. Pitman and wife, with guns and pistols. Their bonds were fixed at $200 each, which they gave.

THE Rev. J. S. Sweeney, republican candidate for auditor, will attempt to make republicans here next Tuesday night instead of being about his professed business of saving souls. He is evidently out of the Lord's commission now.

MONEY.—J. W. Hayden has a letter from C. H. Williams, the railroad promoter, that he has just returned from a two weeks' visit to Philadelphia, where he made arrangements for the money not only to build the line from here to McKinney, but the whole 300 miles to connect us with Nashville.

A YOUNG republican who heard Letcher Owsley, of Lancaster, make a political speech the other day remarked that old Abraham Lincoln, himself, would have turned a democrat had he heard such a speaker in his day. By the way the democrats of the West End are still talking about Mr. Owsley's splendid efforts at Hustonville and Mc Kinney.

THE last time we saw Marshal J. A. Shannon, he had gotten one leg over the fence on his way back to the regular democracy, and this morning we found him clean over and ready to vote for Goebel as well as the rest of the ticket. It will be remembered that he was the principal spokesman in the Brownie so-called convention here.

FOUND DEAD.—Robert Hansford, Sr., an old and well-known colored man, was found dead in bed at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, and Coroner W. Landgraf was sent for. He held an inquest when the following jury found a verdict that death resulted from heart disease: Bony Carter, A. C. Dunn, J. T. Embry, J. E. Portman, J. J. Lansford, and Wm. Bunn. The old man was knocked from a ladder by an L. & N. train a few months ago and was considerably crippled up. Since then he has slept in a room by himself, his wife sleeping in a room adjoining. She heard no noise during the night and the supposition is that he died with little or no struggle.

WE have nothing to say against Mr. McRoberts' personal standing or habits. He is, as far as we know, sans reproche in these regards. So is Mr. North. But there the parallel ends. Mr. McRoberts not only champions every dogma of his party but goes a little beyond in his effort to show his constituency how loyal he is in his newborn zeal. He is against cheap books for the school children; against the McChord bill to keep railroads from extorting; against the election law and every other thing that democrats are for, besides standing on the other various planks of a very mean platform. Can any man professing to be a democrat from principle vote for such a man, especially when he has a regularly accredited democratic candidate who espouses and practices all the principles dear to the democratic heart? We think not. Mark under the rooster and thus vote for all the ticket from Goebel to North.

FEELING GOOD.—Mr. C. L. Holmes, of Louisville, who travels over a great portion of the State, says that Kentucky is all right politically and that Mr. Goebel and his ticket will win by 20,000 or more. Mr. Holmes has taken some pains to find out the condition of affairs and his prediction is not an off-hand guess. By the way he was one of the few Main Street, Louisville, merchants who supported and worked for Bryan in 1896. He was not an original silver man, but has always been a democrat who believes his party bigger than himself.

BOLLIS CARRIER tells us that he has sold his residence and lot opposite Mrs. Lou Shanks to Joe Goode for $25, and that he is not decided where he will go.

MR. K. L. TANNER and son, Ed J. Tanner, are now the McKinney Canning Co., they having bought of Dr. E. M. Estes his interest in the business. The company has sold all of its tomato crop at a good price.

THE election returns will likely be received in Walton's Opera House on the night of the 7th, the managers and Mr. J. S. Rice having about completed arrangements with the Western Union Telegraph Co. and the Associated Press.

THERE is only one ticket for trustees at Hustonville, J. P. Goode, L. F. Steele, A. M. Frye, L. C. Carpenter and W. R. Williams. Rowland only has one also, the candidates being John Delaney, D. C. Good, G. A. Hurst, Thos. Smith and Wm. Murphy.

DEBT PAID.—W. H. Underwood and Crit Eubanks raised here Wednesday, a balance of $25,60, due on the note of $1,000 given by the Hubble church trustees for last payment on the new building, and that night went with other members to the church and made a bonfire in which the note was burned.

JUDGE VARNON says that the contraction of the town limits was not considered in the make up of the ticket, which is to be run in his interest for attorney. He further says that the ticket gotten up especially to represent the contractionists was not for some reason, filed before the time limit shut it out entirely.

IN the case against Mrs. Ona Nailer for trespass on the premises of Mr. J. C. Horton, she was fined $10 and costs, $11.60 in all. It was proved that the Hortons had told the woman not to come on their place and that she not only refused to observe their notice, but came, abused the family and took a lot of hickory nuts.

DIXON AT DANVILLE.—Rev. Thomas A. Dixon, Jr., of New York, "The Platform King of America," will deliver his great lecture, "The New Woman," at Danville, the night of Thursday, Nov. 9th. Dixon combines humor, pathos and dramatic power to a degree unequalled by any other man on the lecture platform. He draws bigger audiences than any other man and is one of the most expensive attractions.

RESERVED SEATS will be put on sale at Marrs' drug store in Danville, next Friday morning, Nov. 3d, at 75 cents. Orders for seats should be accompanied by checks or cash. Address H. Giovannoli, manager.

SPECIAL TRAIN.—Gen. Taylor, Senator Deboe and others will start from Middlesboro on a special train at 10 A. M. Tuesday and speak at most of the stations, arriving at Corbin at 7.30, where it will spend the night. Next day, Wednesday, 1st, they will speak at Livingston at 10 A. M., Mt. Vernon at 10:35, Brodhead at 11:31, Crab Orchard at 12:26 M., Stanford 12:50 remaining till 1:50 P. M., then to Junction City 2:08, Parksville 2:50 and so on to Lebanon. The rade hope to counteract the effect of the Bryan meetings here and elsewhere, but it is too late. The handwriting is on the wall that democracy will triumph and again come into possession of its own.

NEARLY everybody you meet asks "Did you ever see such a lovely October?" It is always the finest month in the year, but this has been exceptionally so. The only bad day was the 17th, and it wasn't bad enough to stop the Bryan and circus crowd from coming to town.

KNOCKED DOWN.—A gentleman from Garrard was here yesterday and asked why we didn't give an account of the knock-down at Lancaster, the night Bryan was there. We hadn't heard of it, and then he told us that a certain democrat had made a certain republican measure his length in the mud, when he heard him make a slighting remark about the great Nebraskan. Guess the names of both arid pay your subscription to this paper.

PISTOL TOTER.—Marshal Joe A. Shannon, of Crab Orchard, lodged in jail last night. Boss Parker, who was assessed a fine of $50 and given 10 days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. Parker is from Rockcastle, where he killed his father several years ago, but was acquitted. He came to Crab Orchard, got on a tear and attempted to shoot Mr. Shannon when he went to arrest him. The officer, however, took the weapon from him and knocked him down with it. While he was in the lock-up a friend on the outside broke the lock and Parker skipped back to Rockcastle, where the marshal and a deputy sheriff arrested him yesterday. Mr. Shannon thinks he is on to the fellow who broke the lock and will pull him up as soon as he has more evidence.

Cattle are high in Clay if the following is true: Henry Marcum bought a yoke of oxen weighing 3,000 pounds, in that county for $300—10 cents per pound.

J. B. Embry, of Nicholasville, has gone to Havana, where he will build for a stock company, extensive stock yards on 24 acres of land purchased for the purpose.

Forestus Reid, having decided that there is no money in raising corn, didn't have a hill this year on his large farm of 1,000 acres. He didn't expect that cereal to be so high this fall.

The greatest sale of wool ever made in Indiana was closed at Crawfordsville, when McClure, Graham and Roundtree sold to the Manchester mills, of Manchester, N. H., over 300,000 pounds of fine wool, at 18 to 20¢.

Sel Renaker, of Cynthiana, the "turkey king," says the slaughter of turkeys has begun and that he has shipped a number East on ice. He also says that there had been an extra large number raised this year and are of a finer grade than usual. He expects the market to be good.

The Montezuma sailed from New Orleans Tuesday with 2,029 mules for South Africa. The daily ration provided for each mule is 12 pounds of hay, five pounds of oats and an equal amount of corn bran and 56 pounds of water.

To insure a sufficient supply the Montezuma carries 38 cars of fair No. 2 timothy hay, six cars of oats and eight of bran. Their drink will be Mississippi River water, 3,000 tons of which are stowed in the 13 watertight compartments into which the hold is divided.

COLUMBIA, KAS. OCT. 24.—Having left Stanford rather suddenly I thought best to drop a few lines in order to make people think that I had not left Kentucky on account of lack of faith in democracy or for fear that Goebel would not be elected, but simply left for the purpose of attending to some neglected business matters. I stopped one day at the jubilee convention, Cincinnati, and had delightful time. It was the grandest religious gathering I ever attended. I have been on the wing every day since I left home, seeing relatives and friends and combining both business and pleasure.

Everything seems to be in a prosperous condition, both in Missouri and Kansas. Where I have been crops are fairly good, but there has been no rain in many localities since the latter part of summer. The most prosperous locality I have seen in many days is the lead and zinc mining district of Missouri. These mines are the richest in these metals of any in the world, while comprising only a small territory, about as much as Lincoln and Boyle counties combined, it has millions of dollars worth of ore. There has been within the past 12 months about $25,000,000 invested in these mines, principally in Joplin, Mo., and Galena, Kas.

There is within 15 miles of Joplin a population of 200,000, many of whom are living in tents. Tell Brent Bennett he could have been a millionaire if he had held on to the 160 acres of land he had where the centre of the city now stands, the same being underlaid with rich mines.

Kansas and Missouri can boast of the longest electric car line in the world, running from Galena, Kas., to Carthage, Mo., a distance of 37 miles. You can ride all this distance for 10 cents, a regular street car fare of five cents being taken on each side of the State line.

Farming lands around Columbus range in price from $15 to $30 per acre. In the mining district it is hard to estimate, there being a few days ago a deed recorded in this city for a few mining claims, the consideration of which was over $200,000 and requiring $600 worth of government stamps. You see this is the way to pay the Philippine war expense.

And it's the same old story, too. There is first the cold, then the cough, then pneumonia or consumption with the long sickness, and life trembling in the balance.

It was only health, we might let it cling.

But it is a cough. One cold no sooner passes off before another comes. But it's the same old cough all the time.

I leave here tomorrow for St. Louis. I close with best wishes for democratic success. Yours, &c.,

W. B. O'BANNON.

An unromantic marshal arrested a fellow at Glasgow for hugging his sweetheart, says the News, on the street and while he was before the judge he was searched and a pistol was found on his person. The judge fined the fellow $25 and 10 days in jail and he is now working on the rock-pile and meditating on the evils of getting gay with one's sweetheart upon the public streets.

The United States produced $64,463,000 worth of gold and 54,438,000 fine ounces of silver during the calendar year of 1898. The South African Republic leads in gold production with $79,213,953, and Mexico stands first as a silver producing country with 56,738,000 ounces fine.

At Knoxville, Charles F. Givens was sentenced by the State Supreme Court to hang Dec. 14. His crime was in hiring his half-witted nephew, Wesley Dawn, to murder his wife. Givens is a physical wreck and had to lie on a cot during his trial.

The Licking Valley railroad, running between Salt Lick and Beaver Creek, a distance of 30 miles, was sold at public auction at Owingsville to George C. Webb, agent for H. A. Fiske, of Providence, R. I., for $31,000. The house on Rhode Island avenue, recently purchased for Admiral Dewey by popular subscription, was formerly turned over to him Wednesday together with the deed thereto. It cost $50,000.

The first snow of the season last year fell on October 26th, and only four times in the past 20 years has there been snow in this month.

Congress will be asked to increase the regular army to 100,000 men.

THE CINCINNATI WEEKLY GA-ZETTE.

No weekly published in this country is more generally known or extensively read than the Cincinnati Weekly Gazette. Its special departments devoted to agriculture, poultry, markets, literature, with other special features, have no equal. It has lately been increased in size to 20 pages, which are compactly filled with the most important news of the world, and just what the family fireside most enjoy. In a word, the Weekly Gazette has the largest weekly circulation of any weekly published in the Central States. This speaks for itself.

Just think of it, a 20 page, weekly for only 50 cents per year! We most heartily recommend it to our readers.

It is for sale by Craig & Hocker.

Mrs. Wm. Swartwood, of Mountain Top, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., gave birth to her 25th child—boy, and it is strong and healthy. He has 21 brothers and sisters living, three others having died.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. The best way to cure deafness is the removal of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless it is immediately relieved, deafness will result in the rest of its natural condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
